Scope Note

The single newspaper issues are contemporary accounts that cover the devastation and paralysis that ensued when the "Great White Hurricane," as it was called, paralyzed the East Coast from Washington, D.C. to the Canadian border. It lasted for 3 days (March 11-14, 1888). Telegraph and telephone wires snapped, and roads and railways shut down, isolating New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Washington for days. Fire stations were immobilized, and property loss from fire alone was estimated at $25 million. Overall, more than 400 deaths were reported.

Frederic Vinton (1819-1890), who compiled the album, was the librarian of the Chancellor Green Library at Princeton (1873-1890).
