

187- series

Pamphlet groups in which the earliest pamphlet is from the 1870's

1877-1932

United States

Military

Letter Box

A wide variety of literature about military matters.

Titles include:

- Three booklets about the Civilian Military Training Camps/Seven Years of the CMTC, Eleven Years of the CMTC, 12 Years of the CMTC
- Naval View of Inland Waterways at Home and Abroad by Rear Admiral C.S. Sperry
- Extracts from the Military Record of Edward S. Farrow, (includes an account of “The Capture of the Hostile Sheep Eater Indians” in the Salmon River Mountains of Idaho in 1879 by Farrow who later became an assistant instructor of tactics at West Point)
- Two copies of Universal Military Training by Henry West and Charles T. Hallinan, Washington, D.C., 1920?
- Testimony of the Army and Navy on True Preparedness Without Taxation, Chemical Foundation, 1921
- Visit of the Fleet of the United States of America, Programme for Sydney, 20th-27th August, 1908, issued by the Commonwealth Government
- Pay Corps of the Navy, a Sketch by David Potter, 1917
- Modern Methods in Sea and Air Navigation by Commander Radler de Aquino, Brazilian Navy, reprinted from the U.S. Naval Institute Proceedings, January 1927
- Father of the American Navy, by George W. Baird
- A French Plea for Limitation of Naval Expenses, by Baron d’Estournelles de Constant
- Korea’s Appeal to the Conference on Limitation of Armament, Washington, 1922
- Conference on the Limitation of Armament, Address by the President of the United States at the opening of the Conference on the Limitation of Armament at Washington, November 12, 1921, Washington, 1921